Based in Brussels, CENTRAL is an architectural and urban planning office founded in 2015 by four partners, mainly active in Belgium, the North of France and Paris. After additional experiences acquired as project managers in different offices in Belgium (XDGA, MS-A, V+), in Ljubljana (BevkPerovic Arhitekti) and in Paris (AUC), Pierre BURQUEL, Radim LOUDA, Paul MOUCHET and Valentin PIRET have established a common practice that explores the limits between architecture and urbanism.

Maxime Delvaux is a Belgian architecture photographer based in Brussels. He works for architects such as Bruther, Christian Kerez, Herzog & De Meuron, Baukunst, 51N4E, Central.
