The successful architects Fuensanta Nieto and Enrique Sobejano, with offices in Madrid and Berlin, create spaces for art all over the world. Their portfolio includes numerous museum buildings and cultural centers. On the occasion of the architectural competition organized by ZAPS for the Cultural Center in Istria Izola, Enrique Sobejano will give a lecture entitled "Variations on the museum idea" in which he will present his concept of cultural buildings and their role in the creation of public spaces.

The lecture will be held in English.
